

AdviceUK Annual Conference

Re:Adjust Advice and Justice

11th October 2018

advice UK

Trent House, Nottingham
BOOKINGS NOW OPEN

AdviceUK Annual Conference 2018

Re:Adjust Advice and Justice

verb [I/T] US /,ri-ə'dʒʌst/

1. to change the way you live or behave to fit a new or different situation
2. to readjust something is to change it, move it, or correct it

How can the advice sector reinvigorate social justice in a changing world of political and economic fragmentation?

This year's annual conference seeks to address these issues in what is set to be an inspiring, informative and relevant event for advice centre managers, supervisors and advisers.

Keynote Speech from Professor John Milbank
University of Nottingham, Chair of ResPublica

Introduction and plenary session from Steve Johnson, CEO AdviceUK

Louise Hulland, Broadcaster and Presenter, as conference Chair, will be guiding us through the day.

Location: Capital One Head Office, Trent House, Station Street, Nottingham, NG2 3HX

Get the latest updates @AdviceUK #aukconf18

Invaluable, compelling content including:

Keynote Speech

Interactive Workshops

Universal Credit, Advice and Justice

Sarah Clark, Public Law Project

Managing Risk in the Advice Sector

Effective signposting

Understanding / assessing the health of your organisation

'Question Time' style debate with a panel of sector experts

Networking Opportunities with AdviceUK members and staff

Exhibition Area with voluntary, statutory and commercial organisations

Book now on our event booking page

0300 777 0107

events@adviceuk.org.uk

www.adviceuk.org.uk/events

